

CODE OF CONDUCT

In the Resourcio community, we strictly believe in providing a friendly and nurturing environment. To maintain these principles during the Apertre event, we have established some basic rules and a code of conduct that all participants are expected to follow to ensure the respect and harmony of our community.

Apertre is an open-source event spanning 15 days where various project ideas will be presented, and a diverse group of open-minded individuals will come together. Due to the diversity of opinions and skills among participants, it's essential to adhere to the following guidelines:

The event will take place on Discord. Please be respectful towards other participants and maintain a high standard of behavior.

- Any form of verbal, sexual, physical harassment, or cyberbullying will not be tolerated.
- Spamming in the chat section or reacting without being asked may result in the cancellation of your participation.
- Avoid promoting other events or groups during the event; such actions will be monitored by the moderators.
- Separate Discord channels will be created for inquiries, so please refrain from using the chat section for that purpose.
- Direct messaging mentors or fellow participants excessively or engaging in stalking is discouraged.
- Any behavior that disrupts the event or negatively impacts the experience of others is unacceptable.
- Be thoughtful and considerate when networking with others. Hate speech, discrimination, or derogatory language targeting individuals or groups based on their race, gender, religion, or other characteristics will not be tolerated.
- Embrace the diversity of thinking and be open to different perspectives.
- Failure to uphold this code of conduct will result in the termination of your participation in the event, and you will not be able to re-join. Please exercise caution.
- By participating in this event, you agree to abide by this code of conduct. We thank you for your cooperation in helping us create a safe and enjoyable experience for all participants.

If you come across anything or anyone disturbing or violating the code of conduct, please contact us at <mailto:resourciocommunity22@gmail.com>.
